

Project Athena

Are you:

- A woman on parole, probation, or recently released from prison or jail?
- A woman who has used drugs?
- Interested in learning about a way to protect yourself against HIV?

You may qualify for a paid research study at the University of Alabama at Birmingham, in partnership with Yale University.

- Participate in confidential study interviews at our research office.
- Earn $50 for each interview, up to $225 for participating in the study.
