American College Theater Festival XXIX

Presented and produced by the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. Supported in part by The Kennedy Center Corporate Fund, The U.S. Department of Education, Ryder System

This production is entered in the Kennedy Center American College Theater Festival (KC/ACTF). The aims of this national theater education program are to identify and promote quality in college-level theater production. To this end, each production entered is eligible for a response by a regional KC/ACTF representative, and certain students are selected to participate in KC/ACTF programs involving awards, scholarships, and special grants for actors, playwrights, designers, and critics at both the regional and national levels.

Productions entered on the Participating level are eligible for inclusion at the KC/ACTF regional festival and can also be considered for invitation to the KC/ACTF

national festival at the John F.
Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington, DC, in the spring of 1997.

Last year more than 900 productions and 18,000 students participated in the American College Theater Festival nationwide. By entering this production, our department is sharing in the KC/ACTF goals to help college theater grow and to focus attention on the exemplary work produced in college and university theaters
across the nation.

SCENE III.

TOM THUMB, to them, with OFFICERS, PRISONERS, and ATTENDANTS.

KING. Oh! welcome most, most welcome to my arms.<sup>17</sup>
What gratitude can thank away the debt
Your valour lays upon me?

QUEEN. Oh! ye gods!<sup>18</sup> [Aside.

TOM THUMB. When I'm not thanked at all, I'm thanked enough.

I've done my duty, and I've done no more.<sup>19</sup>

QUEEN. Was ever such a godlike creature seen? [Aside.

KING. Thy modesty's a candle to thy merit,<sup>20</sup>
It shines itself, and shows thy merit too.

But say, my boy, where didst thou leave the giants?

TOM THUMB. My liege, without the castle gates they stand,

The castle gates too low for their admittance.

KING. What look they like?

TOM THUMB. Like nothing but themselves.

QUEEN. And sure thou art like nothing but thyself.<sup>21</sup>

<sup>17</sup> This figure is in great use among the tragedians:

" 'Tis therefore, therefore 'tis."—Victim.

" I long, repent, repent, and long again."—Busiris.

<sup>20</sup> We find a candlestick for this candle in two celebrated authors:

" ————Each star withdraws

His golden head, and burns within the socket."—Nero.

" A soul grown old and sunk into the socket."—Sebastian.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

For their contributions to the success of our production, we would like to express our sincere appreciation to: BFI and WASTE-A-WAY for allowing our students to rumage in their dumpsters for props and set decor; to THE TOOLBOX for bottle caps and beer and whiskey boxes to complete our costume notions; to MISCONCEPTIONS for even more bottle caps to be used as buttons on the costumes; to COREY'S; to Ms. (Joanne) Turk, UAB Athletic Department ; to Dr. (Daniel) Doyle, and to, Mr. (Garvin) Phillips. Without the full cooperation of many members of the Birmingham media we would be unable to reach the public with details about the UAB DEPARTMENT OF THEATRE productions. Our sincere thanks to the following who provide invaluable time and effort: The Birmingham News, Black and White, Birmingham Post-Herald, UAB report and the Kaleidoscope.
